Barlow Authors

From The National Union Catalog of Pre-1956 Imprints, 1969, comes the following list of books written by Barlows. This list represents titles reported by the Library of Congress and other American libraries.

From the religious works written in the 16th century by William Barlow, to the famous poems of Joel Barlow, to the novels of Jane Barlow, to the very technical works of Harold Everard Monteagle Barlow, this list is a wide spectrum of publications written by Barlows. And who can forget that popular song of the '50's by Harold Barlow, I've got tears in my ears (from lyin' on my back in my bed while I cry over you).

Additional details on these works, including the libraries that own copies, can be obtained from The National Union Catalog, from the Library of Congress online card catalog, from various online book databases, from your local library, or from Barlow of Barlow.

A. Katherine Barlow, translator, The Armoured Cruiser, by F. Schauwecker, 1938.

Alfred Barlow, The History and Principles of Weaving by Hand and by Power, 1878, 443 p., 25 cm.

Notes From The Editor

The latest proposed postal rate increase is finally "the straw that broke the camel's back." I think that I've done quite well by holding the original subscription cost to $10 annually for the past seven years, but the ever increasing postal rates, as well as increased printing costs, have finally forced me to raise subscription rates.

After September 1, 2001, an annual subscription to the postal version of the Barlow of Barlow newsletter will be $12. All subscription payments, either new or renewal, received before September 1st will be honored at the $10 annual rate. Subscription payments received after September 1st must be at the new $12 annual rate. The annual subscription to the e-mail version will remain at $5 since postal and printing increases don't affect e-mail costs.

I would also like to remind readers of the availability of back issues. All back issues, including those under the editorship of A. Maxim Coppage, are available in both printed and e-mail versions. Printed back issues are available by first class mail for $2.50 each. E-mail back issues in the Adobe Acrobat .PDF format are free from Barlow of Barlow <elbarlow@tir.com> or at the Barlow Clearinghouse website at <<http://freepages.genealogy.rootsweb.com/~barlow/>>.
